Summer Explodes With Flurry of Winners

Anamosa Woman Wins $100,000 in the Cash Game

Sue Debner, 51, of Anamosa won the top prize in the $100,000 Cash Game on July 6. She purchased her winning ticket at Anamosa Petro-N-Provisions, 500 E. Main in Anamosa.

Debner has been a Powerball and Hot Lotto player for a while. She said she didn't play the Cash Game until just recently and tried it because it was something different. She hit all five numbers with an easy pick.

Sue Debner of Anamosa

Debner said she found out she had won while she was at work checking the numbers in the paper.

"I couldn't believe it, so I asked my co-worker to check it for me and she said 'Yes!'" Debner recalled.

She said she didn't scream or anything when she realized she'd won.

"I didn't want anybody to know in case I was wrong!" she said.

Debner then called the winning numbers line to verify the win. The recording said there was a winner at the P-N-P in Anamosa. She was fairly certain at that point that she had the winning ticket.

Debner said she'll use her winnings to pay bills. 🐾

La Motte Farmer Has Whole Lotta Luck; Wins $10,000

A lucky dairy farmer milked his winning lottery ticket for all it was worth recently.

Tim Waller of La Motte won $10,000 playing the "Whole Lotta Luck" instant-scratch game from the Iowa Lottery. He purchased his winning ticket at Run-In Grocery, 18820 Bellevue-Cascade Road in Zwingle.

"I had an old $5 lottery ticket in my truck," recalled Waller. "I had to get gas, so I reached in to get my checkbook and saw that ticket laying there. I thought 'Well, I'll get some more tickets.'"

Waller purchased two Whole Lotta Luck tickets and a "Reelin' in the Cash" ticket.

"The first one we scratched off was $10,000. I couldn't believe it at first. I almost went off the road!" he exclaimed.

Waller said he was driving to Maquoketa with his father riding in the passenger seat. His father scratched the ticket as Tim drove. When his dad scratched the big winner, Tim made some noise!

"I hollered so loud my little boy had to put his hands over his ears. I guess I almost deafened him!" he said. "I was probably [all] over the road a little bit after that."

They stopped back at the same store where they purchased the tickets on their way home. He had the clerk check the ticket, even though he knew the clerk wouldn't be able to cash it.

"He [the clerk] went over and stuck it in the machine and he looked at it and he said, 'Oh my God!'" he said. "I was just messing with him a little bit."

Waller said the first thing his wife said when she found out about the win was that she needed a new vehicle.

"About five seconds after I told her, she already had it spent!" he said.

Waller said he felt some good karma when he bought his winning ticket.

"I was looking for some good luck and I got lucky," he said.

He plans to use his winnings to pay some bills and he may take a little vacation. 🐾
